School Board Leo Human– The board is creating a legislative committee to encourage legislative advocacy and Clayton engaging with the state of MO. There are going to be a series of meetings while the legislative is active.

Principal's Report: Dr. Tarita Murdock

- Library furniture update: finished measuring and we'll have a final budget next week.
- Cultural Events: we didn't have any volunteers to put up Lunar New Year this year. Going forward we want to make sure we have volunteers for all cultural events

Vice President Report – Ashley Fraser

- Open sign-up spots for volunteers

Presidents Report:

- PTO is providing a meal to the facilities teams as a thanks for all of their help with the January snow.
- Valentines Day parties are coming up February 13 since there's no school on February 14

Teacher Representative Report: Ms Engle

- MAP testing dates are April 28-May 9, please avoid vacation and appts if possible
- Captain and Meramec have sign up sheets for teacher snacks. The PTO leads the sign up but the grades provide the snacks. Discussion around implementing something similar for Glenridge

Treasurer's Report: Jessica Yuan

- Reviewed transactions

Other Business:

- Teacher Appreciation – snack will be provided on February 14. Need it delivered at 11:45.
- Communications – Jami is continuing to work on emails, they'll all come from her
- Read a Thom – communications went out. Dr Murdock will have a virtual read aloud on Sunday. Monday (kick off) there will be a yard sign, there will be display boards with the QR code to enroll. Monday is dress like your favorite book or character. There will be activities during the week. Friday we're having a local author visit.
- Yearbook – deadline for ordering is March 30, delivery date is May 16 and Whitney needs help with sorting
