WHAT IS GIRL SCOUTS?

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Groups of Girl Scouts from the same community, called troops, typically meet weekly or bi-weekly for an hour or two.

Hand-in-hand with adult volunteers—often parents or caregivers—girls select exciting hands-on activities and projects, try new things, and cheer each other on. Together, they earn badges to reflect their successes and show the world what they're made of.

QUESTIONS?

Whether you want to start a new troop for your girl and her friends, join an existing troop, or have questions, contact the Answer Center at answercenter@girlscoutsem.org. Or, call us at 314.400.4600.

GIRL SCOUT PROMISE

On my honor, I will try:
To serve God and my country, To help people at all times, And to live by the Girl Scout Law.

GIRL SCOUT LAW

I will do my best to be honest and fair,
friendly and helpful,
considerate and caring,
courageous and strong,
and responsible for what I say and do,
and to
respect myself and others,
respect authority,
use resources wisely,
make the world a better place, and be a sister to every Girl Scout.
