Suggested possible answers:

1. Me llamo..., pronounced meh yahmoh, means I call myself... or my name is...
Mi amigo se llama..., pronounced mee ahmeegoh seh yahmah, means my friend's name is...
Mi maestra se llama..., pronounced mee mahehstrah seh yahmah..., means my teacher's name is...
2. Me gustan... (I like) pronounced meh goostahn los perros (dogs), los gatos (cats), los peces (fish), los cuyes (guinea pigs) , las tortugas (turtles), las serpientes (snakes), los pájaros (birds), muchos animales (lots of animals).
3. Hispanic Heritage Month is celebrated between September 15-October 15.
There are 21 countries around the world that speak Spanish. They are México, Guatemala, Honduras, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Panamá, República Dominicana, Puerto Rico, Cuba, Venezuela, Colombia, Ecuador, Perú, Chile, Bolivia, Paraguay, Uruguay, Argentina, España and Guinea Equatorial. Arte en hojalata is a type of Mexican folk art that has been around for more than 500 years. It is made using sheets of tin, embossed and cut into different shapes for different purposes. Some examples are frames, mirrors, tin ceiling tiles, and mobiles.
